Ukrainian artist to debut at cocktail party

THE dish
with susie

Out there . . . Zorya Fine Art at 38 E. Putnam Ave. in Greenwich is hosting a cocktail party from 7 to 10 p.m. Thursday featuring the American debut of contemporary Ukrainian artist Oksana Mas.

The event, sponsored by R.S. Granoff Architects PC, Mercedes-Benz of Greenwich and Silver Properties LLC, will feature DJ Christopher Ford/Party Mix NYC and photographer Johnny Nunez covering the event.

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Zorya Inc. Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing awareness of the richness of Ukrainian history and culture, according to event organizers. For more information, call Zorianna Altomaro at 869-9898 or visit www.zorya fineart.com.

Scene . . . Ira Neimark, former chief executive of Bergdorf Goodman, drew quite a crowd last month at a book-signing at Richards of Greenwich. The dapper former fashion icon, who began his career as assistant doorman at Bonwit Teller at the age of 17, signed his book, "Crossing Fifth Avenue to Bergdorf Goodman," and mingled with patrons while sharing stories of his encounters with the likes of Princess Diana, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Audrey Hepburn.

The book offers his insights of the fashion industry and lessons learned. Neimark is already working on his next book, which will include pictures from his days in the fashion industry, thanks to his wife, Jackie.

Scene . . . Riverside resident Gary Dell'Abate, aka Baba Booy, producer of the "Howard Stern Show" on Sirius XM Radio, appeared May 29 on the Fox game show "Don't Forget the Lyrics!" hosted by Wayne Brady.

Dell'Abate won $200,000 for his charity, "LifeBeat . . . The Music Industry Fights AIDS" (www.lifebeat.org). His backup/lifeline on the show was Mark McGrath, singer in the rock band Sugar Ray. Dell'Abate also just finished shooting an episode of the IFC show "Z-Rock," which filmed in New York City and featured Greenwich's own Van Lewyn Ice Cream.

Out there . . . Hundreds of patrons attended the recent Greenwich Chamber of Commerce Business & Culinary Showcase at the Hyatt Regency Greenwich.

Jeff Weber, executive vice president of Greenwich-based Business TalkRadio Network, served as emcee of the event that featured 70 exhibitors.

The evening's festivities included a fashion show by local shops, including Michael Kors, Brooks Brothers, Courage b, J. McLaughlin, Out of the Box and Pamela Ferrari. The night also featured the Throwdown Chowder Challenge judged by Chef Jean Louis Gerin of Restaurant Jean-Louis; Frank Lugossy, proprietor of Continental Wine & Spirits in Greenwich; and Chef Bill Rosenberg of F.I.S.H.

Out there . . . Greenwich resident and musician/producer Rob Mathes will perform at the Naked Soul Series on Friday night at the Rubin Museum of Art on 150 W. 17th St., New York City. Mathes will join percussionist Ben Wittman and a string quartet including Max Mendel and members of Yo Yo Ma's Silk Road Ensemble.

For tickets, call (212) 620-5000 or visit www.rmanyc.org.

Scene . . . Former NBA star Isiah Thomas, now head men's basketball coach at Florida International University, was seen having lunch last Sunday at the Rye Bar and Grille in Rye, N.Y.

Out there . . . The YMCA Greenwich is hosting an Ice Cream Social Fun Day from 2 to 4 p.m. today at 50 E. Putnam Ave.

And that's all for now.
